

United States District Court
District of South Carolina

Date: September 29, 2003

Subject: We Are Moving

Notice

The United States District Court for the District of South Carolina located in Columbia, South Carolina, will be relocating to the new Matthew J. Perry, Jr. United States Courthouse.

The Clerk's Office will be relocating from the Strom Thurmond Federal Courthouse to the Matthew J. Perry, Jr. United States Courthouse effective Monday, October 6, at 8:30 a.m. Our new address will be 901 Richland Street; Columbia, SC 29201. All telephone numbers will remain the same.

Chief Judge Joseph F. Anderson, Jr., and Judges Cameron Currie, Margaret Seymour, and Matthew J. Perry, Jr., and Magistrate Judges Joseph McCrorey and Bristow Marchant and all courtrooms will relocate to the Perry Courthouse during the week of October 6.

Effective Monday, October 13, all U.S. District Court business in Columbia will be conducted at the Perry Courthouse, and the Strom Thurmond Courthouse will be closed.